Comparison Collected Listings of Priests, Divisions, Leaders and Levites Of and After the Returns

Note: Names from the texts are reordered alphabetically except when, as in column 5, they coincide with name in earlier columns.
 Italicized names are according to and as spelled in 1 Esdras.
 Other uses of many of these proper names will be encountered in various parts of this work; refer to the Index.

Data is drawn from the following sources:

 “The priests.” 1 Esdras 5:24-25.
- 1a. “These the chiefs of their fathers who went up with me in the time of Artaxerxes.” Ezra 8:1ff.
 “These are the chiefs according to their families...that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of Artaxerxes.” 1 Esdras 8:28ff.
2. “[I]n the days of Joiakim were priests, the heads of the fathers:...” Nehemiah 12:12ff.
3. Those who built on the wall. Refer to list in 3A, V; Ezra 3:1-16.
4. Names of men found to have “foreign” wives/children in the “second-reported” excommunication, set forth in Appendix 3B, II, sub-part IV, B(a) and (b).
 Names of men involved in the “first-reported” excommunication (sub-part IV, A) are included in this chart also if they coincide with other column items.
5. “The heads of the people.” Nehemiah 10:14ff.
6. “[T]he ones being sealed [with] Nehemiah, the governor, the son of Hacaliah* ...were [these] priests.” Nehemiah 10:1ff.

<sup>4</sup> "Ezra" appears to be a division in column 2 with a Meshullam at its head in the days of Joacim and Ezra. It cannot be said whether the "Azariah [older form of Ezra]" which appears in column 6's covenantor's list is the Ezra (compounded by the inability of sorting the "Meshullams."

<sup>8</sup> (a) Other uses of Adnah, see 3B, I; (b) Harim and Immer are in seeming contradiction between the texts, where "Harim" is missing as a category and counterparts of Harim names in Ezra appear with "Emmer" in 1 Esdras (refer to 3B, II, sub-part IV.B).
